52 VENUES 200 EVENTS LIVE MUSIC CABARET POETRY THEATRE ARTS
THE ONLY FESTIVAL IN GLASGOW DEDICATED TO THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTHSIDE

Hello and welcome to the Southside Fringe Festival 2016!

Growing ever bigger with 52 Southside venues on board as Official Fringe Venues, hosting around 200 events between the 13th and 29th May. We're delighted to welcome all our new venues on board and especially House for an Art Lover, Castlemilk Youth Complex and Pollok House.

The festival sets sail with our 'Launch Extravaganza' at The Rum Shack, Friday the 13th. Unlucky for some, but with the Trongate Rum Riots at the helm this freaky Friday will get the festival launched with a yo ho ho and plenty of rum. Tickets are £8 from Ticket Scotland and Fringe HQ.

Our opening weekend also sees us working in partnership with Art on Scotland to bring you Art on the Park. Hosted by House for an Art Lover, starting at noon on Saturday the 14th, with art, craft and hot and cold food stalls. Bar opens at 4pm with live music and entertainment until 10pm. There's something for all the family!

There's plenty to do if you like theatre, including Three Wee Crows Theatre Company, who are joining us from Oban on the 21st & 22nd, portraying the home front in WWI Scotland in 'Home Fires, Broken Sons' at Pollok House.

Cabaret includes Fringe favourites Kim Khaos and Tom Harlow with their 'Glitter and Grind Revue' at The Shed on the 28th. And we're delighted to welcome 'Overheard in the Southside', a regular West End eve hosted by Mark McG, migrating to The Bungo Bar & Kitchen on the 26th.

Food and drink fans won't be disappointed with events like the Salisbury's 'Gin and Food Evening' on the 18th and dinner to accompany Bell & Felix's 'Jazz Swing Evening' on the 27th.

With over 80 live music events this year there's definitely something for everyone!

From Glasgow based stars such as Iain Forbes, Gerry Lyons, David Duffy, Daniel Meade, Old Bohemia and Graeme Quinn through to a range of acts from England, Germany, Italy, Finland, Brazil, Kenya and North America.

We'll cater for lovers of Indie, Blues, Bluegrass, Pop, Rock, Country, Reggae, Soul, Jazz, Classical, Swing, Gypsy Jazz and more, plus a couple of album launches, several songwriter nights and live tributes to legends of music David Bowie and Neil Young.

Under 18's shouldn't miss the live DJ event 'Live at the Braes Ballroom' on the 21st with Castlemilk Youth Complex at the Braes Shopping Centre and our Sunday afternoon singer/songwriter sessions at Sweeney's On The Park.

And finally come and celebrate another amazing year for the Southside with our 'Grand Finale' closing party at Loks Bar & Kitchen on the 29th May. Top picks from the festival programme, cabaret, live music, DJ and surprises! Tickets £10 from Brown Paper Tickets and Fringe HQ.

For full venue details, ticket sales links and further info on events please see our website at southsidefringe.org.uk or pop in and see us at Fringe HQ, Art Village, Unit 12, Shawlands Shopping Centre, Kilmarnock Road, G41 3NN.
